SOMETHING'S ROTTEN

A: Oooo. The peaches look wonderful.

B: I bought some the other day and they were all rotten.

C: I work here and I can tell you for a fact- these peaches are NOT rotten.

D: You could try the apples. The apples definitely aren't rotten.

E: But are they sprayed? Insecticides can kill you, you know.

F: Ralph? Ralph? Where are you?

A: I really wanted peaches. I was going to make a peach pie.

B: Not with these peaches. I'm telling you - they're all rotten.

C: Nothing in our store is rotten. We don't sell rotten food.

D: You could make an apple pie. I made one just the other day and it was great.

E: I hope you peeled the apples before you made the pie. Otherwise, you made INSECTICIDE pie.

F: Ralph? You know I hate it when you hide from me. Where are you?

A: If my pie doesn't turn out well, will the store refund my money?

B: It won't turn out well. Not with rotten peaches.

C: We don't refund your money just because you don't know how to make a good pie.

D: You could just make an apple pie and then you wouldn't have to worry about them refunding your money.

E: Do you think they sprayed the strawberries? You can't peel strawberries.

F: Ralph, if you don't come out right now, I'm leaving you here.

A: Maybe I'll just make a cake instead. My cakes are always good.

B: Any kind of cake is better than a rotten peach pie.

C: Just remember- if your cake comes out flat- no refund.

D: Why are those peaches MOVING??

E: Eeek!! It's a...it's a... it's a RAT!!

F: Ralph!! THERE you are! Hey lady, stop screaming. You're scaring my pet rat!
